Voluntary Recall of Mirrorball Shampoo

We are initiating a voluntary recall of amika Mirrorball High Shine + Protect Antioxidant Shampoo. No other amika products are affected by this voluntary recall.

What You Need to Know

- Affected Product: Mirrorball High Shine Plus Antioxidant Shampoo, all sizes, all lots purchased in 2023 or 2024. This recall only impacts Mirrorball Shampoo, the Conditioner is not included in the recall.
- Reason for Recall: We have been monitoring recent feedback citing change in odor & in rare cases, temporary irritation. There have been no reported serious adverse health events associated with using this product. We initiated this recall after determining that various production batches at our third-party manufacturing site do not meet our stringent quality standards, due to the presence or potential presence of a bacterium called P. Gergoviae.

We want to reassure you that, after consultation with an independent toxicology group, we are confident the use of this product does not pose a serious health or safety risk to healthy individuals. However, individuals with certain risk factors such as a weakened immune system or broken skin may be more susceptible to infection.

amika takes pride in its commitment to vigorous consumer safety standards, which is why out of abundance of caution, the decision was made to voluntarily recover this product from retailers and to proactively reach out to consumers.
