Coffee Scrub

If it's a full pamper session that you're after, you'll need this body scrub! Made with freshly ground coffee that is infused with sweet almond and macadamia oils, it revitalises and exfoliates your body, smoothing away dry, flaky and uneven skin. Buff it over your whole body in the shower using circular motions, leave to dry for five minutes, then wash away.

Every at-home facial should finish with a good moisturiser! Luckily, this one is infused with hyaluronic acid and avocado oils that hydrate and soften your skin, whilst also reducing the appearance of fine lines and wrinkles. Massage it along your jawline from your chin to your earlobes, across your cheeks from your nose to your temples, and down from your eyebrows towards your nose using circular movements.
