STEP 3

Keep a SMOKING DIARY for 1 week to track your habits before quit date ...

Welcome to step 3 of your incredible journey to smoke-free living. At Nicorette®, we understand that everyone is different. That's why we've created this personalised quit programme to support you on your way. It's all about matching your smoking habits with quitting strategies that will work for you.

Keep a pre-quit-smoking diary

Keeping a smoking diary for a week is a good way to prepare yourself for quitting. Count how many cigarettes you smoke, when you smoke, what you do while smoking, and how much you needed or enjoyed that particular cigarette.

At step 4 we will ask you to review your smoking diary in order to prepare your quit plan. Look for patterns. For instance, do you smoke more in the morning or at night? Do you mostly smoke with meals or after meals? Do you smoke more when you're with other people or when you're alone?

Becoming more aware of your smoking habit gives you more control of your behaviour and makes it easier to change it. Boost your chances to quit successfully and be prepared when cravings are most likely to strike!

You have started... you might as well keep going!
